REAL ESTATE

This could be your chance to acquire this newly built, executive residence offering all you could desire and nestled in this sought after and up and coming area.

This immaculate home is perfect home for young couples, families and those looking to downsize to a lower maintenance property without having to compromise on quality or living space. This property would also suit savvy investors looking for strong capital growth and solid depreciation due to the home being almost brand new.

The location is perfect, being just metres from the Clovercrest shopping district, public transport and parks and reserves and within walking distance to local schools and an abundance of cafes and restaurants.
